DARKNESS DESCENDS

Norwegian Art Now

September 1–October 9, 2009

DARKNESS DESCENDS: Norwegian Art Now delves into the uniquely Norwegian style of neoromanticism in contemporary art. The exhibition brings together a multidisciplinary group of artists to explore the fascination with darkness inspired by mythology and a close relationship to nature. Curated by Christina Vassallo, produced by Cotelston Advisors, N.Y.

Tuesday, September 29, 4 p.m. Williams Visual Arts Building

Panel discussion about working in the art world,

“What Next?” Exhibition producer Michael Sellinger will speak from the commercial viewpoint and describe how his company, Cotelston Advisors, fits into the for-profit model. Christina Vassallo will address the “what next” question from the viewpoint of a curator and arts administrator.

Exhibition reception to follow.

Wednesday, September 30, noon, Williams Center for the Arts

Curator’s talk: Christina Vassallo and Michael Sellinger will discuss themes explored in the exhibition.

Hours: Tues–Fri 1-5, Sat 12-5, and by appt.
